

ABOUT SHIMLA

The former summer capital of the British India, and the present capital of Himachal Pradesh, Shimla has been blessed with all the natural bounties which one can think of. It has got a scenic location, it is surrounded by green hills with snow capped peaks. The spectacular cool hills accompanied by the structures made during the colonial era creates an aura which is very different from other hill. Bulging at its seams with unprecedented expansion, Shimla retains its colonial heritage, with grand old buildings, charming iron lamp posts and Anglo-Saxon names. The Mall, packed with shops and eateries, is the main attraction of the town, and Scandal Point, associated with the former Maharaja of Patiala's escapades, offers a view of distant snow clad peaks. Shimla is ideally located, and though there is an air service to the town, it is best reached by road that takes in the charms of the HIMALAYAN countryside at its best. There is a sense of nostalgia about SHIMLA, with its old bungalows and their gabled roofs and beautiful gardens.

ABOUT HIMACHAL PRADESH UNIVERSITY

Himachal Pradesh University was established by an Act of the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh on 22nd July, 1970 as a response to the needs and aspirations of the Union Territory, poised for full statehood in the Union of India on 25th January, 1971. It is the only multi-faculty residential and affiliating university in the State that provides higher education to urban, rural and tribal areas through formal and distant modes.

The headquarters of the University is located at Summer Hill, the picturesque suburb of Shimla. The University has a total area of 241.11 bighas with stately buildings set among rhododendron, silver oak, pine and deodar trees. It affords a salubrious climate and congenial atmosphere for reflection, study and research. The prime objective of the University is to disseminate knowledge, advance learning and understanding through research, training and extension programmes. It instills in its students and teachers a conscious awareness regarding the social and economic needs, cultural ethos, and future requirements of the state and the country.

ABOUT CONFERENCE THEME

Education is an important pillar of any society, fundamental to achieving full human potential and developing an equitable and just society for promoting national development. The new National Education Policy-2020 (NEP-2020) envisions to bring about significant reforms in higher education to cater to the changing landscape of knowledge and create global standards of education. This requires a deep dive and thorough understanding of the provisions and the approach for effective implementation of the same.

This conference aims at providing a common platform to all the stakeholders in Education- the regulators, managements, faculty members, researchers, students and people from Industry to deliberate on diverse perspectives of the New National Education Policy-2020, understand its role in transforming higher education and to discuss the practical challenges that may be encountered during the implementation of this policy.

The purpose is to provide an understanding of the proposed reforms and ease in creation of a roadmap for effective implementation. To ease the achievement of the goal of transforming India into a vibrant knowledge society by making education more comprehensive, flexible, skill based, multidisciplinary and holistic to shape up future ready professionals who are socially responsible and have high moral values
